Responsibilities

Your role with us

You will become an expert in all things storage! You will greet and provide exceptional service to every customer that walks through your doors or calls on the phone. Often times, you'll be helping customers during some of their most challenging times, making a difference when they need it most.

- Provide outstanding customer service by listening to customers to understand their unique situation and recommend solutions and products that meet their needs.
- Become an expert on all things storage by learning the leasing process, explaining it to customers and managing all aspects of rentals from making a sale, to taking payments, to selling merchandise, to offering insurance and making collection phone calls.
- Take ownership of your store's retail business, including operating the point of sale, gate systems, and processing reports.
- Participate in operations activities including but not limited to: inspecting the store through daily walk-throughs, performing lock checks, cleaning, janitorial duties, and maintaining the property.

You'll love working here because

- You'll make a difference. You will help people during some of the most difficult times in their lives by listening to them, easing their concerns, and providing them with a solution that meets their need. You will be creating friendships with your fellow teammates while serving a common goal. We are actively engaged in local charities and communities.
- You'll belong to a team. We will work together to create an encouraging and resourceful team that will excel and accomplish our goals. Together, all things are possible!
- We encourage growth! Our company is expanding and has a variety of opportunities available. We provide the training, you provide the initiative.
